The Groupline is a monthly publication of Siouxtand Intergroup. Subscriptions are $10.00 per year. Articles and information from the fellowship are welcome and encouraged. Opinions expressed are not necessarily those of AA as a whole, but of the individual(s).

All articles and information to be printed must be submitted to the Central Office or Groupline editor no later than the third Thursday of each month. The editor and office manager reserve the right to edit all materials submitted.

Quotations from Alcoholics Anonymous Big Book, Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions, and other Conference approved literature are reprinted with permission from AA World Services, Inc.

Cartoon and articles from the Grapevine are reprinted with permission from The AA Grapevine, Inc.

Faithful Fivers, in gratitude for their sobriety, contribute $5 each month to the Central Office to keep it operating and to keep the phone service going. Our Faithful Fivers program has been working for the past seven years, and has helped carry AA's message of recovery to the still suffering alcoholic. Please make checks payable to SIOUXLAND INTERGROUP.

"One of the most fundamental things I have learned is to pass on our message to other alcoholics. That means I must think more about others than about myself. The most important thing is to practice these principles in all my affairs. In my opinion, that is what Alcoholics Anonymous is all about. "

2001 AAWS, Alcoholics Anonymous, p. 199 (With permission, Alcoholics Anonymous World Services, Inc.)
